Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

In 1829, Mendelssohn took a memorable trip to the Scottish Island of Staffa and its famous Fingal's Cave. The journey made an immediate impression - he wrote the first few bars of what became the Hebrides Overture on a postcard to his sister saying 'how extraordinarily the Hebrides affected me.'

A clip about the cave and approaching it by boat.

David Robert Jones (8 January 1947 – 10 January 2016), known professionally as David Bowie was an English singer-songwriter and actor. A leading figure in the music industry, he is regarded as one of the most influential musicians of the 20th century. Bowie was acclaimed by critics and musicians, particularly for his innovative work during the 1970s. His career was marked by reinvention and visual presentation, and his music and stagecraft had a significant impact on popular music.

Changes is a great song for the term where all the children are thinking of the changes that are happening.
